All,

Thank you for your diligent work on Tuesday. Guidepost was immensely helped by your feedback. As they are working to finalize the report before delivering it to the task force on Sunday, there are a few more sections they would like to put in front of anyone who is available. In order to give them as much time as possible to complete their work, they requested that we review the report together over zoom tomorrow afternoon at 5 PM Eastern time.

I know this is late notice and that some will not be available. But if you are available, the zoom information is below. I would guess it will take at least an hour, and possibly longer. Feel free to join the call for whatever duration you are available.

If you cannot make it at all, please know that you have already done the lion's share of the work. They just wanted to make these final details available before finishing the report.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you again.

Josh

I apologize for not being able to make it online today. I was hoping to make the schedule work, but was not able. Please know I prayed for those that were able to join the zoom call. I'm thankful to serve alongside each of you on this committee.

Chris,

You were missed. Josh, Ed, John and I were on the call, along with Amy Whitfield.

It was a difficult meeting - more heavy, sad information. But as always with this committee, comfort in the unity with which we approached it and dealt with it.

Thank you for praying. It has been such a blessing to work with you.

Yours in Christ,
Nancy
